Open/New Agenda Items	Reimbursement of Psychology code 90846 (family therapy without patient present) - Debra Garcia KDADS- meeting today to write criteria for policy coverage PCP Assignment (Quality Metrics) – being assigned members that have not established with us (neighborhood assignment). Provider concern they are penalized for members assigned to them when member doesn't established. Infant vitamin D Supplementation – policy update KDHE policy for coverage will be effective 8/1/2021. Four NDCs will be covered: Poly-Vi-Sol, Tri-Vi-So, D-Vi-Sol, Poly-Vi-Sol + Fe. Coverage of Genetic Testing Newborn PCP Assignment/Fetal Enrollment – KDHE internal discussion with managed care program manager, not sure it would be allowed with CMS. Baby is covered under mom's ID number for approximately 45 days Sunflower Home Visit Program – Discussion with committee clinicians' experience dealing with MCOs requesting provider signature on a completed home visit.	Will revisit status at next meeting Rick Hoffmeister to take back to MCOs – Committee recommends quality metrics be determined from members seen, not assigned Resolved, can be closed. Provider bulletin early July Resolved. It is covered by KanCare/Medicaid Can be removed from open items Rick can contact Sunflower contact and pass on concerns from

	Committee questions if it may involve more than just Sunflower. Clinician example of a patient that had several medications and diagnoses from regular care not reflected on MCO comprehensive home visit form. Suggested that MCOs should be in contact with PCP early in the home visit process to ensure accuracy of care information. PCPs could also recommend members for home visits that have not been in regularly, rather than home visits on members already well-established. Some members may be eligible for One Care Kansas. All managed care members required to complete health risk screen. Result of the health risk screen then can trigger health risk assessment.	committee. Committee request that each MCO provide information as to how members are chosen for home visit review and what process is followed. Issue will be moved to primary agenda item at next meeting.
Future Agenda Topics	Revisit MCO home visit item Claims for adaptive services/home modifications (PD waiver) – long delay, providers offered outside of local area
