

The KanCare Ombudsman Volunteer Program trains volunteers to answer calls and meet with people in the office who have questions about KanCare. They will be able to answer Medicaid questions, help resolve problems and refer members to resources. The program is seeking volunteers in the Kansas City Metro area.

All applicants for the KanCare Ombudsman Volunteer Program must complete and sign the application and the background check forms when applying to the program. If a person with a disability requires auxiliary aides and services when completing this application, please contact the KanCare Volunteer Ombudsman's office to make that request.
